

Side Event to the 2nd High-level United Nations
Conference on South-South Cooperation (BAPA+40)

THE POWER OF SOUTH-SOUTH COOPERATION TO STRENGTHEN MULTILATERALISM

Wednesday March 20th | 13:15-14:45
Instituto Sanmartiniano, Mariscal Ramón Castilla 2900, Buenos Aires

Progress in South-South and triangular cooperation requires a robust and well-functioning United Nations system.

The President of the General Assembly has initiated formal deliberations on the 75th anniversary of the United Nations, recognizing the opportunity this provides to address the current crisis in multilateralism, and initiate a process of stocktaking, review and strengthening for the organization.

Forty years after the adoption of the Buenos Aires Plan of Action, this side event aims to explore the opportunities for South-South and triangular cooperation to help realize the 2030 Agenda and achieve a people-centered multilateralism.

Moderated by:

Monica Hirst, Professor of International Studies (UNQ, UTDT)

Speakers:

- Dr. Adonia Ayebare, Ambassador and Permanent Representative of the Republic of Uganda to the United Nations, Co-facilitator of the outcome document for High-level Conference
 - Representative of Uruguay to the High-level Conference
- Dr. Adriana Abdenur, Coordinator of the Peace & Security Division, Igarapé Institute
- Florencia Gor, WFM-IGP Congress Chair and Member of UN2020 Coordination Group

A light lunch will be provided. This event will take place in English, with Spanish translation.
