

Addressing Multilateralism in Crisis: Linking non-proliferation, disarmament and the wider peace agenda on the road to 2020

A Side Event during the 2019 Preparatory Committee for the 2020 Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty Review Conference

The anticipated United Nations 75th anniversary Summit in 2020 provides an opportunity to take stock of achievements, renew commitments to the Charter's purposes and principles and consider effective measures to strengthen the organization.

The Summit will also affect expectations and planning for a number of multilateral, "+5" conferences and UN processes in 2020, including the NPT Review Conference.

Topics covered at this side event include prospects for a successful NPT Review Conference, the Secretary-General's 2018 report on disarmament ("Securing Our Common Future"), the PyeongChang Agenda for Peace 2030 and the UN2020 Initiative.

Moderated by:

Ms. Zoya Craig, UN Representative, Centre for Armed Violence Reduction

Speakers:

Ms. Renata Dwan, Director, United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research

Mr. Alyn Ware, Global Coordinator, Parliamentarians for Nuclear Non-proliferation and Disarmament

Mr. Anselmo Lee, Senior Advisor, Asia Development Alliance & PyeongChang Global Peace Forum

Mr. William Pace, Convenor, Coalition for the International Criminal Court
